Dear Mr. Hall:

Thank you very much for your recent letter in which you inquire about the availability of scholarship support for your two children who are pursuing artistic careers.

The Federal student loan programs are, unfortunately, geared towards individuals who are studying at the college level. To my knowledge there are no Federal grant and loan programs which could assist your children at this particular stage in their careers.

I greatly enjoyed reading about these two tremendously talented young people in the Sunday Journal Magazine. They are a huge credit to Rhode Island and I shall follow their progress with great interest.

With warm regards,

Ever Sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
